Checklist for a Subaru Telescope Tour

Important phone numbers (Reception is not guaranteed)
808-935-6268 Road condition of the Mauna Kea access road
808-934-5970 Leave message for Subaru Telescope tour guide
Email touradm@naoj.org

* Follow the advice and the recommendations of the Maunakea Visitor Information Station (MKVIS) staff and the Mauna Kea rangers.
* When the access road is closed to the public, there is no tour program at Subaru Telescope.

Checklist

		✓
0	Jet-lag is gone. Tour date specified as the date here in Hawaii:
1	All participants had enough sleep and are in good condition.
2	All participants have plenty of water.
3	All participants have warm clothes, gloves, and covered shoes.
4	Fill up the vehicle with fuel before leaving town; have driving directions.
5	Departure time from where you are staying: am
6	Acclimate at MKVIS (at least one hour), final check of the road condition and weather:
7	Use bathroom at MKVIS before leaving for summit.
8	Departure time from MKVIS (½ hour before the tour starts): am/pm
9	Carefully drive to the summit, following the posted speed limit: 25 mph (most of the access road) or 5 mph (SMA-Subaru Telescope-Keck Telescopes). Do not interfere with the road grader.
10	Arrival at the meeting area at Subaru Telescope: am/pm
11	Submit pre-signed waiver forms in advance or sign it upon entry to Subaru Telescope's enclosure.
12	If cancellation or delay in arrival, call 808-934-5970 or email touradm@subaru.naoj.org. Tour will be cancelled if no arrival by 15 minutes after the appointed time.

Further information:
https://subarutelescope.org/Information/Tour/Summit/caution.html

(Ver. 4/25/2017)